

Seeking Participants for a Research Study on Services Provided to Youth who have Experienced Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children (CSEC)

Service Providers are invited to participate in research examining services for youth in California who have experienced CSEC and the perceived effectiveness of those services.

Findings from this study will contribute knowledge to support more effective interventions and better care for youth who have experienced CSEC to improve the services available. Participants will receive the study's results.

Potential study participants include:

- Case Workers
 - Social Workers, Probation Officers, Care Coordinators, etc.
- Mental Health Professionals
 - Therapists, Clinical Social Workers, Counselors, etc.
- Supervisors/Managers
 - Clinical Supervisors, Program Managers, Department Directors, etc.
- Caregivers
 - Parents, Resource Family Parents, In-home Caregivers, Residential Staff, etc.
- Subject Matter Experts
 - Consultants, Survivor Leaders, Trainers, etc.

If you or someone you know may be interested in participating or have questions on this study, please contact:

Rebecca McGill, Student Researcher
rebecca.mcgill4843@coyote.csusb.edu
831-222-0170

Dr. Teresa Morris, Research Supervisor
TMorris@csusb.edu

This study has been approved by the California State University San Bernardino Institutional Review Board (IRB#: IRB-FY2022-37)